

You are invited to the Association of Family Serving Agencies' 2008 Fall Luncheon:

Engaging and Investing in Communities and the Non Profit Sector in a Time of Change

- Building on leading edge expertise of practitioners
- Grooming a new generation of leaders as boomers retire
- Training in entrepreneurship and innovation

Framed within the larger picture of the current economic turmoil and challenges faced by the non profit sector, guest speaker Dr. Evert Lindquist will discuss positive opportunities for the non profit sector, including the proposed UVic MA in Community Development in the Social Economy. There will be opportunity for feedback and discussion.

Dr. Evert Lindquist is Director and Professor, University of Victoria School of Public Administration, Chair of the Board of the Centre for Non Profit Management, and member of the Steering Committee of the Government/Non Profit Sector Initiative.

When: Thursday November 27, 2008
11:30am - 2:00pm

Where: The Embassy Inn, 520 Menzies Street
(parking available on site)

Cost: $25 for AFSA members/$30 non-members
(Cash or cheque only, payable to Community Council)
- subsidies are available

Program: 11:30 - Registration and networking
12 noon - Lunch buffet
12:30 - Keynote speaker
1:20 - Closing remarks

RSVP by November 21, 2008 to 250-383-6166
or info@communitycouncil.ca.

If you need to cancel after the registration deadline, we will need to invoice your agency the cost of your registered space. Solution? Ask a colleague to go in your place.

THE ASSOCIATION OF FAMILY SERVING AGENCIES

The logo for the Association of Family Serving Agencies (AFSA) features the acronym 'afsa' in a large, bold, white, lowercase sans-serif font. Above the acronym, the full name 'THE ASSOCIATION OF FAMILY SERVING AGENCIES' is written in a smaller, yellow, uppercase sans-serif font, following the curve of a semi-circle.

Committed to ensuring a healthy community for families in the Capital Region since 1985