

TOOLS FOR SUCCESS

Our Tutoring Program Continues in September 2008 for students with epilepsy

“Learning in this setting is fun.” Delphine

“I love reading books now, especially chapter books.” Tabitha

“Theresa loves to come and the extra time spent learning is great for her. It builds self-esteem and the love of learning. Thank you for this program.” Mom

- Weekly tutoring sessions from Sept 08 – May 09 focusing on:
 - Identifying learning challenges
 - Building on strengths
 - Developing individualized learning strategies
- Monthly opportunities for parents and guardians to learn strategies to assist students to maximize their potential
- LIMITED SPACE AVAILABLE
- Low cost to participants; subsidies available

Please help us get the word out by sharing this with all families living with epilepsy

For further information, contact:

Isa Milman, Epilepsy Program Coordinator
Victoria Epilepsy & Parkinson's Centre
813 Darwin Avenue, Victoria BC V8X 2X7
Tel (250) 475-6677 e-mail imilman@vepc.bc.ca
Website: www.vepc.bc.ca

Funded by United Way of Greater Victoria in partnership with the University of Victoria

