

Sharing Stories and Spaces

The Summer Institute on Community-Based Research

University of Victoria - McLaurin Building 9-4pm
July 17 and 18th, 2008

Everyone Welcome! Register Now!

The Summer Institute brings together community groups, researchers and academics, policy makers, funders and students interested and engaged in community-based research. Both days feature dynamic and interactive workshops led by CBR practitioners.

Thursday July 17th - Sharing CBR Stories

- ❖ Ecological Restoration and Participatory Aboriginal Research in Snitchel (Saanich Inlet)
- ❖ Growing our Local Food Systems
- ❖ Creating Housing with CBR Tools
- ❖ Community Sustainability and Business
- ❖ Community CBR and AIDS in Africa
- ❖ Mobilizing Communities and Campuses for Climate Change and Sustainability Solutions

UVic Green Drinks Gathering 4-6pm at Student Union Building

Friday July 18th - Creating CBR Spaces

- ❖ Power and Ethical Issues in CBR on-the-street
- ❖ Hearing Youth Voices for a Change
- ❖ Practices and Designs for Community Based Research Projects
- ❖ Arts-Based Research Methods and Practices: A Focus on Popular Theatre
- ❖ Finding and Visioning Our Common Ground: Mapping and CBR
- ❖ Combining Diverse Research Methodologies to Advance Community Health Research

Moderators: Budd Hall and Rajesh Tandon Keynotes: Jo-Anne Lee, Fran Hunt-Jinnouchi, Sandrina DeFinney and Ross Kidd;

Workshop Presenters from throughout UVic and Community (Food Roots, Community Council, Theatre Works, Saanich First Nations, Youth Core, Anti-Dote, B.C. Institute of Cooperative Studies, Common Ground, LifeCycles, CRFair and others!)

Sponsors: UVic Faculties of Education, Human and Social Development and Social Sciences, Division of Continuing Education, Office of Community-Based Research and the United Way

Institute Fees - includes all sessions, keynotes, two lunches and a reception

Regular Fee - $175 NGO's - $150 Students in ED-D 487 and EDCI 591 - $50

Bursaries Available: Contact ocbr@uvic.ca or Sarah Dickie 472-4171

Details and registration: www.continuingstudies.uvic.ca/cbr/