

CITY HALLS & FAMILIES

Can Mayors & Councils do more to support the well-being of families in the CRD?

What can the Capital Region learn from other communities?

Join AFSA for this talk-show style forum followed by a Q&A as we look at what smart local governments can and are doing to support the delivery of community social services.

Your host
CBC's Gregor Craig

Our Guest Panel:

Charley Beresford

Columbia Institute

Jennifer Charlesworth, Ph.D.

Federation of Community Social Services

Rupert Downing

Community Social Planning Council

Michael Prince, Ph.D.

Lansdowne Professor of Social Policy

If you work in, volunteer in, believe in, or depend on community social services; if you're running for civic office; if you're voting in the Nov 19th election; or if you have a great idea about how to better support families at the municipal level—
THIS EVENT IS FOR YOU!

Wed, Nov 9th
Metro Theatre

3:30 pm Registration & coffee

4 pm Show begins

5:30 pm Open Mic

6:00 pm Wine & Cheese

$20 for AFSA members

$25 for non- AFSA

Price includes your first glass of wine

Another community initiative of:

COMMUNITY SOCIAL PLANNING COUNCIL
research·insights·solutions

TICKETS: info@afsavictoria.ca | 250-727-9736

ON NOV 19th
VOTE 4 FAMILIES
in the CRD

The Association of Family Serving Agencies (AFSA) would like to thank the following organizations for their support:

